

The perfect bequest brochure for a liberal arts school for prospects from the 60s, 70s and early 80s.

Bequests. The most important gift.

Bequests are often associated with wealthy donors.

With a clear sighted message in an elegant, full-color brochure, you can remind your donors that is not the case... and gently show a simple way to leave your organization in their estate plans. Bequest giving boosts annual giving, so these brochures are a must-have for any organization.
